

Freedom News You Can Use

April 16, 2009

Special points of interest:

- Students who ordered yearbooks will receive them on May 7. Our traditional school-wide yearbook signing will take place at the end of field day. If you didn't order a yearbook, we still have a few available. The cost is $30 per book. Remember, only students who have paid for a yearbook will receive them on May 7.
- Class and kindergarten photos are now available for on-line purchase. Click on the link on the home page of our website to access the pictures.
- If your child needs summer care, you must be registered by May 14. Only students who are registered by May 14 will receive the summer t-shirt.

Party for the class with the most by April 30!

Coming Soon!

On Monday, April 19, Pastor Mark will have lunch with the pastor's partners for the third grading period. Congratulations to the following students on their exemplary Christlikeness:

Lily Bacon
Maisy White
Brycen McKeehan
Jade Barfield
Gracie Forrester
Audrey Morris
Emily Morris

Also on Monday, April 19, students in 1st, 4th, and 5th grade may have their pajama day since they missed it on Friday, April 16, due to field trips. For a $2 donation to our library, students in 1st, 4th, and 5th grades may wear pj's on Monday!

Friday, April 23, is our last Fabulous Friday. For a $2 donation to our library, students may wear clothing of their choosing (as long as it's something that would be appropriate for church). Watch for Marvelous Mondays in May!!!

Pastor Appreciation Day is Friday, April 30. Students will wear uniforms that day. The brunch will begin at 9:00 a.m. and each family is asked to contribute an item based on the age of your oldest child.

K3 and K4: juice

K5: fresh fruit

1st and 2nd: one doz. doughnuts or pastries

3rd: fresh fruit

4th-7th: sausage biscuits (one dozen), sausage balls, or pigs-in-a-blanket

Also on Friday, April 30, our "Trip Around the World"

Fun Night will be held from 5:30-8:00 p.m. Each family is asked to contribute one food item based on the age of your oldest child:

Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. Dyer:

12-pack Dr. Pepper

Miss Hall: bottled water

Mrs. Schwengels:

12-pack Sprite

Mrs. Woodard:

12-pack Diet Coke

Mrs. Burnette: family size

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Organization

Your business tag line here.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served. It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those
